Prince Harry vs William

Constantly in competition for the most desirable Prince, Harry and William are neck and neck. But who is consistently in the lead? Let's take a look at their successes and faux pas.

PUBLIC IMAGE

Prince William wins with a resounding "Hurrah!" due to the fact that Harry just can't seem to keep it in his pants. The royal family's self-proclaimed bad boy has quite a bit of growing up to do before he is deemed fit for the throne.

HAIR

Prince Harry pulls through with a win in this category, seeing as Prince William barely has any. Although Harry is a ginger (a commonly mocked hair color), his feathery locks spark a collective sigh when spotted publicly.

SIGNIFICANT OTHER

Another win for Prince William has hit the jackpot after he finally popped the question to long time partner, Kate Middleton. She's gorgeous, smart, and she doesn't flop around naked in pictures with her hubby in Las Vegas. Take notes, Harry.

The winner is obvious, innit?

Prince William takes the crown... literally. Harry has a lot to learn from his suave, balding older brother.
